	"You can see it, it's still present."	Akhá

Considering the Continuatives Chart:

3. In sentence A, the continuative, abá, is used. Does that mean the action is happening NOW, or in the PAST?

4. In sentence B, the continuative, ayíhe, is used. Is it an I tense, or You tense continuative? What other two continuatives could you use?

5. In sentence C, the continuative, yakháshe is used. Does this mean the subject is moving, standing, or sitting?

Translate into Kaáⁿze Íe. Use the correct continuative:

6. Do you see your dad?

7. I will see my grandson soon.

8. The dog saw the big brown bear.
